Stipulated Motion to Appear Telephonically

- I. Respondent. The respondent is Utility Resource Solutions, L.P., who resides at 2603 Augusta, Ste. 1400, Houston, Texas 77057.
- II. Petitioner. The petitioner is American Cleaners & Laundromat who resides at 3322 S. Chicago Rd., South Chicago Heights, Illinois, 60411.

HERE COMES Utility Resource Solutions, L.P. (URS) by and through her attorney of record, Ms. Casey P. Adkins, and requests for permission to appear telephonically at the June 29, 2006 hearing. This request is based upon the following:

1. Counsel has other preliminary hearing matters that must be attended to that same day in Harris County, Texas.
2. Not being allowed to appear telephonically would prohibit counsel from being able to attend to her other preliminary hearing matters.
3. Appearing telephonically will in no way prejudice the Petitioner or hamper the negotiation process.
4. The parties listed above have both agreed to allow Respondent to appear at the June 29, 2006 status hearing telephonically.

WHEREFORE, it is requested that this Motion for Telephonic appearance be granted and that this honorable court grant any other relief that it deems necessary and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Casey Paige Adkins, Esq
General Counsel
Utility Resource Solutions, L.P.
2603 Augusta Ste. 1400

Order Granting Telephonic Appearance

The Illinois Commerce Commission, having read Respondent's Motion for Telephonic Appearance and having found that:

1. Counsel has other preliminary hearing matters that must be attended to that same day in Harris County, Texas.
2. Not being allowed to appear telephonically would prohibit counsel from being able to attend to her other preliminary hearing matters.
3. Appearing telephonically will in no way prejudice the Petitioner or hamper the negotiation process.

Respondent's Motion to Appear Telephonically has been granted.
